

Our Services

We provide help for new comers to Panama and speak the truth regarding various issues with 35 years experience in Costa Rica and Panama.

We will provide you with the best legal counsel, legal counsel that we use and have learned to trust. There will be different attorneys for different jobs.

We have attorneys specifically schooled in residency.

We will do our best to find the dream property for you and if we don't have it or can't find it we will send you to some one who can.

We will give our humble advise on your concerns on moving to a country you are not familiar with. We only ask you to remember that Panama is not Kansas. Things are done differently here but they do get done.

If enjoying life is more important to you than making money Panama is definitely a suitable place for you.
